

Help the worm find its way through the apple!

Did you know: Randall's Island Park is home to 67 apple trees! Many of these trees are Newton Pippens, a variety of apples first developed in Queens near Newton Creek roughly 300 years ago.

