As NYC adapts and responds to the COVID-19 crisis, our parks and open space have never been so important. Throughout NY Pause, Randall's Island was open and welcoming for all, serving a record number of visitors. Our programs pivoted to provide online education and fitness resources, and our Urban Farm donated over 3,000lbs of fresh produce to local food pantries. Now, we need your help.

For more information, email: Laura Velazquez, Volunteer Coordinator, laura.velazquez@randallsisland.org

Follow us! @randallsisland
Give your employees the opportunity to safely support the community while enjoying open space, fresh air, and sweeping skyline views!

Sample Projects
- tree and bush planting
- shoreline clean up
- trash pickup
- weeding, transplanting, cutting
- mulching woodland
- urban farm planting, harvesting, composting

Access
- Pedestrian: 103rd Street Footbridge, RFK Triborough Bridge, Randall’s Island Connector
- Car: RFK Triborough Bridge
- Public Transportation: M35 bus

Safety
Safety is our top priority and our team adheres to City and State guidelines, including NY Forward. Please enquire for the most recent capacity and safety protocols. Some measures include:
- social distanced outdoor projects
- reduced capacity with pre-trip screening
- required masks
- increased tool cleaning
- bottled water, gloves, hand sanitizer provided

Past Partners
- Morgan Stanley
- Deloitte
- The Carlyle Group
- IBM
- American Express
- EisnerAmper
- Goldman Sachs

Partnering Levels
To host a corporate volunteer day at Randall’s Island Park, we request a tax-deductible contribution at one of the following levels:

- Park Ally $2,500
  - one three-hour volunteer experience for 25 people
  - logo hyperlink on website
  - group photograph and dedicated social media post

- Park Sustainer $5,000
  - one three-hour volunteer experience for 50 people
  - feature story in our e-newsletter with 24,000+ subscribers
  - logo hyperlink on website
  - group photograph and dedicated social media post

100% of Randall’s Island Park’s operating budget is fundraised by the Alliance. With limited resources, we rely on volunteers to keep the island beautiful for our over 4 million annual visitors. Your team will have the immediate impact of making the island greener, safer, and more welcoming for all New Yorkers.