

Year of the Tiger Paper Bag Puppet

Make a tiger puppet out of a paper bag for the Year of the Tiger!

Project inspired by: Simple Everyday Mom

Materials Needed:

- Orange, white, and pink construction paper. Black construction paper (optional)
- Brown paper bag
- Glue
- Scissors
- Black marker
- Hole puncher (optional)

Instructions:

1. Place your brown paper bag so that the opening is at the bottom and the flap is facing up and at the top.
2. Cut two rectangles from the orange construction paper so they cover the paper bag flap and the bag itself. Glue these to the paper bag.

3. Cut two ears from the orange paper and glue to the top of the bag. Cut two smaller ears from the pink paper and glue on top of the orange ears.
4. Cut eyes from the black construction paper for eyes or draw them on with the black marker.
5. Use the hole punch to make two circles for the whites of the eyes or cut them yourself.
6. Cut a white oval and glue under the eyes. Draw the snout and whiskers of this circle!
7. Cut a larger oval for the body.
8. Draw on black stripes or cut it from black construction paper. Glue this around the edge of your tiger!
9. Give your tiger a name and enjoy!
